Acknowledgement of Country

Link-Up (Qld) and its staff would like to pay our respect to the Traditional Owners, Elders, past and present on whose lands we have visited, and on whose lands we work and live.

Chairman's Report

Welcome to this year's AGM and thank you for your ongoing support. The AGM is that time of the year when the members come together and fully scrutinise the reports and financial statements, and peruse the audited returns. It is at the AGM that the membership is given the opportunity to evaluate the activities and performance of the corporation. This organisation has now been operating for four decades and we have grown and expanded to the point at which we are now widely regarded as being a senior, peak organisation in this sector. We have a regional office in Cairns, and we service communities and families from every part of this vast state. We reach out and connect with individuals and families, we run programmes and initiate and manage activities, and we continue to serve those members of our community who were forcibly removed during those darker times of our recent past.

Sam Watson, Board Chairman Link-Up (Qld)

Link-Up (Qld) has witnessed and been a contributing partner to some of the most significant events of this nation. We were there during the Royal Commission in the 1990s that was conducted by Sir Ronald Wilson. We were there when the Royal Commission handed down its ground breaking findings and recommendations. We were there when the then Prime Minister, the Hon. Kevin Rudd MP, launched his new government and a complete new era in race relations in the land, with that incredible moment of the national apology to the Stolen Generations in 2008.

Link-Up (Qld) was initially founded to respond to the needs of our Stolen Generation survivors, and their families and communities. We were founded to become a committed advocate for people from within our community, who were victims of the most appalling treatment and abuse. From very humble beginnings we have grown to this level at which we are a senior leader, and as a major corporation we are a very real presence in this sector. We are there on a daily basis for our clients and our community, and we are constantly talking to government and to our partners, in order to advance our struggle to properly address and serve our clients and our community.

As you read through the reports that have been prepared for you, you will note that we continue to maintain the highest level of administration and accountability. There are no qualifications on the audit and we have given due account for every cent that we have received from government.

You will also note that we have said farewell of a number of staff from last year's AGM. Those people have each made significant contributions to the work of this corporation and they have left our employment with our blessings. Each one of those persons has gone onto other positions and other work, and we wish them well. We have also welcomed into our Link-Up (Qld) family some new faces and we have been very, very impressed with the quality, commitment and vision of our new members.

As the Chair of the corporation and on behalf of our Board of Directors, I want to thank all members of our staff (both past & present) for your magnificent efforts across this past year. To work in this sector and to confront on a daily basis, the horror and tragedy of so many damaged lives is never an easy thing to do, and many of our own staff have had to access substantial and ongoing counselling to assist them to deal with their work. I also want to thank our clients and our community for your continuing support and endorsement.

I also say a huge thanks to our Board of Directors, you have each done great things and it has been a real privilege to work with you. I am pleased and proud to hand the corporation back to the members and to seek your support and endorsement for another year.

Sam Watson

Chief Executive Officer's Report

---

Having commenced in the role of Chief Executive Officer in June this year, I am excited about working with the Board, staff, clients and community of Link-Up (Qld) and look forward to the challenges of meeting the targets set in our recently developed Strategic Plan.

I would like to acknowledge the contribution of my predecessor, Melisah Feeney, for her role in leading Link-Up (Qld) during her three year tenure.

Principal activities

The principal activities of the corporation during the financial year follow.

The reuniting of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people over the age of 18 who have been separated from their families and communities through adoption, fostering, removal or institutionalisation. The main forms of reuniting included family reunions, graveside reunions, return to communities, country and institutions.

Sheryl Sandy, CEO Link-Up (Qld)

Link-Up (Qld) ran some large community events to strengthen the social and emotional wellbeing of Stolen Generation people in key communities across Queensland. Link Up (Qld) staff ran successful Healing Camps at Kindilan's (2011 and 2012), Echo Creek, Tully and at the northern tip in Injinoo, Umagico, Bamaga, New Mapoon and Seisia.

The Sorry Day Breakfast was held on the 26th May 2012 at Orleigh Park and the Apology Anniversary event was conducted at the Men's Shed at Dutton Park.

A number of events have been conducted at Link-Up (Qld) premises including a Mosaic workshop and the Cherbourg Dormitory Women's Workshop.

Link-Up (Qld) was proud to launch their new book Stolen Generations Education, written by Dr Norman Sheehan, on 25th May 2012. This workbook aims to provide clear and challenging information through methods that help Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander and all other participants to engage with Stolen Generations knowledge as a positive and reinforcing learning experience.

Link-Up (Qld) partnered the Aboriginal Centre for the Performing Arts (ACPA) in the production of 'Stolen', which was directed by Leah Purcell. Leading up to the performance, Link-Up (Qld) clients talked to the students about their removal and the impact on their lives. The sharing of real peoples stories enlivened the production and was a healing opportunity for the Link-Up (Qld) clients and Elders. This highly successful collaboration resulted in ACPA and Link-Up (Qld) winning the Premier's Reconciliation Award, as well as being Highly Commended in the Partnerships Award.

Travelling Art Exhibition – The Art Initiative art work toured through regional Queensland. The aim of the exhibition was to take the collages back to the original communities so that each community could appreciate and acknowledge their own art work individually and also as a community, and to examine what other communities provided in their artworks. The participants received a large laminated poster of their collage, and a certificate of participation in the "Sustaining Connections" workshop.

The past year has also seen the relocation of the Link-Up (Qld) office to Woolloongabba and the launch of new premises for the Cairns office.

Review of operations

Client numbers increased during the financial year, from 2691 to 3109. Intake flows have increased substantially.

The majority of clients (68%) were 1st Generation Stolen Generation members, so themselves having directly experienced institutionalisation, fostering, adopting or forced removal. 19% of clients were second generation Stolen Generation members and 13% 3rd and subsequent generations.

The organisation has tried to enhance its services in regional, rural and remotes areas of the state this year.

There were a higher proportion of female (63%) than male (37%) clients. There is an even distribution of the number of clients within each age group, with 20% of clients 18-39 years, 27% 40-49 years, 26% 50-59 years and 27% over 60 years. This indicates the service is reaching different age cohorts.

There were 315 Link-Up clients that had a reunion during the financial year. Of the reunions the majority were family reunions:

- 49% Family Reunions;
- 22% Graveside Reunions;
- 15% Return to Country; and
- 14% Return to Community.

Link-Up (Qld) was involved in a wider range of community events across Queensland, such as Sorry Day, NAIDOC week, Mental Health Week, Dreaming Festival, community health days and other community events. A large part of our work included providing educational sessions at a wide range of institutions from primary and secondary schools, TAFE, and universities.

Link-Up (Qld) has been strengthened through partnerships with key agencies such Relationships Australia Qld. Our reunions, healing activities and community events have seen linkages strengthen with the clients and communities we serve.

I would also like to acknowledge the ongoing support of the Office of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health (OATSIH), the Department of Communities and the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet.

Service Delivery Manager's Report

A word about the service delivery team

2011/12 has been a year of continued service improvement for Link-Up (Qld), despite changes in service delivery and organisational leadership. Brian Marshall, Service Delivery Manager since 2009, departed to greener pastures in 2011. The role was admirably filled temporarily by Rosemary Norman Hill until a new Service Delivery Manager was recruited at the end of the year.

Every day, the service delivery team of Link-Up (Qld) demonstrate their strong commitment to making a difference to the social and emotional wellbeing of our Stolen Generation clients. We have a skilled team of Counsellors with degree qualifications in Social Work, Anthropology, Arts/Health Science and Creative Arts, and one Team Leader with a Diploma in Family and Community Services. A further strength of the service delivery team is the skills, qualifications and developing specialist knowledge of our Research Team. Our case workers are the frontline of our client service delivery, each one of the team brings enormous community and cultural knowledge to their roles.

Link-Up (Qld) is strongly committed to the ongoing professional development of our service delivery team. During 2011/12 team members participated in a broad range of training and professional development courses. Two staff members commenced a two year Diploma of Narrative Therapy delivered by Nunkuwarrin Yunti of South Australia.

Three staff commenced a Certificate IV in Mental Health delivered by the Queensland Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander College for Health, Education and Training (QATSICHET).

One staff member completed a Diploma of Counselling and another commenced a Masters of Indigenous Studies.

A number of staff participated in Cultural Capability Programs.

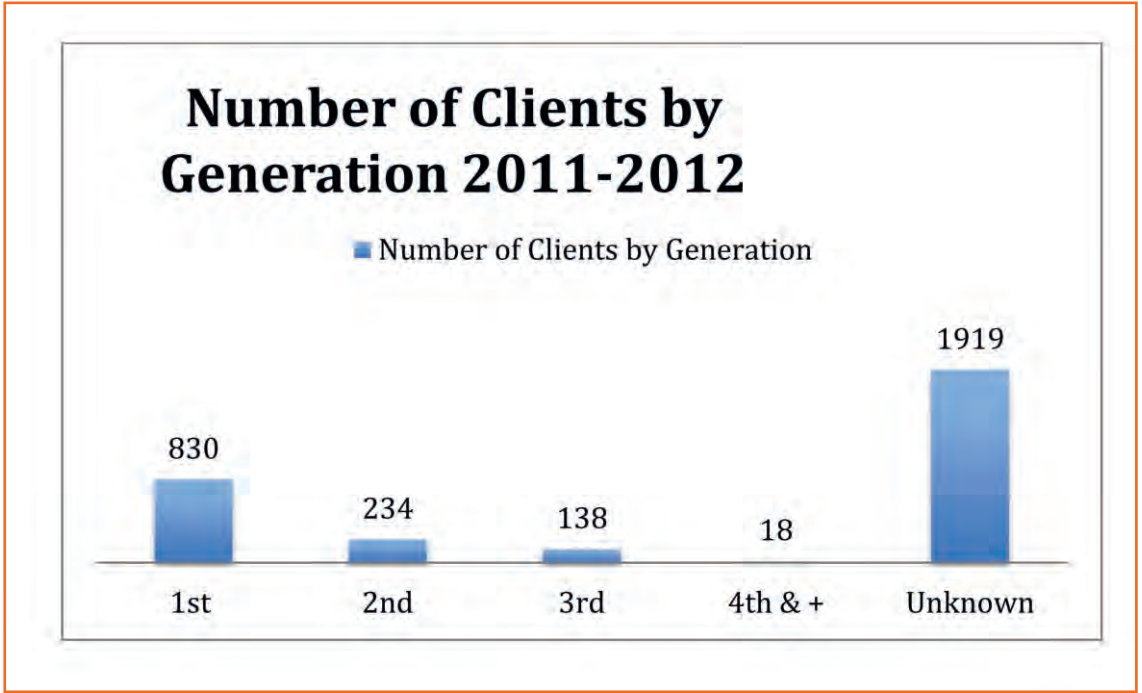

Other courses completed included, 'Becoming a Manager', Leadership, Torres Strait Islander Adoptions, Foxtrot Database, AIATSIS Research Training, First Aid and Queensland Fire and Rescue training.

Who are our clients?

During the year we undertook a significant review of all of our 'cold cases', which led to 797 file closures during the year. Many of these client records were found to be incomplete client intakes where there was insufficient detail to make contact with the person. We have been able to update contact information for approximately 200 of the 'cold case clients' and are actively communicating with these people, and seeking their current status and ongoing interest in remaining as Link-Up (Qld) clients. We have completed this process for all known first generation 'cold cases' and a number of client records and cases are being renewed and reallocated as a result.

We had 608 active clients for the year 2011/12.

Of the total number of clients (active, inactive, pending and closed) the largest group (68%) are first generation removed, 19% are second generation and 13% are third generation plus (of those for whom this data is known).

All aged groups are strongly represented in our client profile, including a significant cohort of 60+ years who are prioritised for immediate allocation and service delivery.

Females are overrepresented in proportion to males. We are focused on improving service access to males through intentional recruitment of male workers.

What services did we deliver?

Client Reunions

31 individual reunions were completed during the year, involving 315 clients, family members and support people. This is up on 2010/11 reunion numbers of 26 reunions involving 283 individuals.

Reunions took place across the state, with some interstate locations.

In Far North Queensland reunions were held in Cairns, Cooktown, Hopevale and Ravenshoe.

In Western Queensland reunions were held in Mt Isa, Cloncurry, Charleville, Longreach, Cunnamulla, Woorabinda and St George.

In South East Queensland reunions were held in Cherbourg, Inala, Southport, Brisbane, Beaudesert and Bribie Island.

In New South Wales reunions were held in Canberra, Bourke, Deniliquin and Forster.

In Victoria a reunion was held in Kyabram.

In the Northern Territory reunions were held in Darwin and Alice Springs.

Most reunions were a reunion to family. Depending on client preference and the results of our research, all types of reunion were conducted to assist our clients in their healing journeys.

Research

Research Activity included 2062 searches of: community records 152; Government records 544; and non-government records 1366.

Casework and Counselling

During 2011-12 we initiated over 2000 client contacts, an average of 3.4 contacts per active client.

Support Groups

Support Groups are held once per month and provide an opportunity for pre and post reunion clients to be supported by their peers and our counselling staff. The Support Group programs include Yarning Circles, guest speakers, skills development activities and links to other support services. Participation is open to all past and current clients of Link-Up (Qld).

Healing Camps

Increasingly Link-Up (Qld) is working with Stolen Generation clients at community level, conducting healing camps and Connective Art programs. These events are planned and delivered by Link-up (Qld) Counsellors and Caseworkers on top of work with individual clients. In 2011/12 we organised four Healing Camps:

Echo Creek Healing Camp was held 8-12 July 2011

39 Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people from Bamaga, Cairns, Yarrabah and Mareeba with a personal history of removal from family attended this five day participatory workshop. The Healing Camp focused on four key deliverables of building participants perspective and hopefulness; education and awareness; decreasing stress and trauma, and increasing cultural insight.

Brisbane Healing Camps at Kindilan, Redland Bay- two camps held 2-5 August 2011 and 1-3 June 2012

The purpose of the Kindilan Healing Camp was to improve the social and emotional well-being of clients through reconnection with other members of the Indigenous community and culture. It also created a safe environment for participants to share their thoughts, feeling and emotions, and provided activities that allowed for sharing, connection, building of self-esteem, and provided tools to incorporate into everyday living to build resilience.

Twenty participants attended in August 2011. Thirty participants attended in June 2012. Participant feedback was very positive with 100% of participants rating the camp facilities, program and cultural appropriateness as good, very good or excellent.

Cherbourg Women's Dormitory Workshop 6-8 March 2012

The Cherbourg Women's Dormitory Workshop was held from 6-8 March 2012 at Link-up (Qld) as a follow up to the Cherbourg Women's Dormitory Reunion in early 2011. Twenty seven women attended the workshop which focused on building their individual leadership capacity. All participants attended the Black, Bold and Beautiful event celebrating International Women's Day as a finale to the workshop. The group formed a Steering Committee to plan future healing gatherings.

Community Connections

The service delivery team are major contributors to Link-Up (Qld) presence in the community, and 2011 was no exception. We provided community education and outreach activities at the annual NAIDOC celebration, Apology Day BBQ and Sorry Day.

Staff also contribute to a number of not for profit boards and community networks, including North Queensland Regional Aboriginal Corporation Language Centre (NQRACLC) Cairns; Kawanji Aboriginal Aboriginal Dance Group Cairns; Transfield Services Indigenous Advisory Board and Ipswich Community Agency Network.

Healing Camps

Link Up (Qld) staff ran successful Healing Camps at Kindilan's (2011 and 2012), Echo Creek, Tully and at the northern tip in Injinoo, Umagico, Bamaga, New Mapoon and Seisia. Clients were treated to beauty treatments, hairdressing and holistic therapies, arts and crafts, musical entertainment, as well as basket weaving and jewellery making activities.

AUGUST 2011

Link Up (Qld) Cairns and Brisbane staff organised a Healing Camp for the Cairns region at the Echo Creek Adventure & Aboriginal Cultural Camp west of Tully NQ. Approximately forty participants from Mareeba, Innisfail, Yarrabah and Cairns escaped their everyday lives to relax and be pampered at the Healing Camp. Echo Creek is owned by the Traditional Owners and they organised activities with fishing trips, gunyah building and shared information about their land and its history.

SEPTEMBER 2011

Camp Kindilan is situated at the southern end of the Redlands area, approximately fifty minutes drive from Brisbane CBD. Link Up (Qld) clients sat back and enjoyed the quiet, relaxing bushland setting.

The official Welcome to Country was performed by Uncle Sidney Coolwell along with a smoking ceremony by his son Fred. The Link Up (Qld) board members who attended were appreciated for their acknowledgement and presence.

Children participated with activities including bushwalks, canoeing and rock climbing. Ms Deb Bennett from Relationships Australia contributed and provided Male Counsellors to the Camp, where numerous referrals were prepared.

MAY 2012

Due to the political and cultural dynamics of the region, the Healing Camp for the northern tip region had to be spread out over five days to visit each community separately. The community reciprocated by taking staff members to the “tip” of Australia by an adventurous boat ride for the men and a 4WD trek for the women.

Sorry Day Breakfast

The Sorry Day Breakfast was held on the 26th May 2012 at the Orleigh Park site. The Brisbane City Council organised a squad to beautify the area for the breakfast and planted foliage on the morning of the event. The site looked incredible with two plaques (Sorry Plaque and Apology Plaque) placed in two boulders surrounded by a half circular garden plot with fresh plantings and flowers. Uncle Syd Coolwell performed the Welcome to Country ceremony and his son Fred did the smoking ceremony.

The Sustaining Connections Travelling Display

Sustaining Connections Art Initiative, Travelling Exhibition, Dalby

After the success of the Sustaining Connections Art project, Link-Up (Qld) set up a visual display of all the artworks for each community and returned to each region to display their work.

The Travelling Display went to Bundaberg, Rockhampton, Townsville, Cairns, Mount Isa, Ipswich and Dalby and was exhibited at venues including Universities, Colleges and community centres. The size of the display was visually enchanting and numerous comments of high praise were filtered back to Link-Up (Qld). Communities boasted of their communal pride at seeing their artistic efforts presented in such a public exhibition and requested Link Up (Qld) to run this program again.

Office Openings

In June 2011, the Cairns office of Link Up (Qld) had a launch for its new premises in Parramatta Park.

The Brisbane office launched its new premises at Reid Street Woolloongabba on the 25th November 2011 with a BBQ and speeches in the car park. Maroochy Barambah did the Welcome to Country and Link Up (Qld) client, Jack Munro cut the ribbon for the opening ceremony. Link Up (Qld) Chairman, Sam Watson, OATSIH's Helen Simpson and Gabba ward member Cr Helen Abrahams addressed the crowd of sixty invited guests.

Reunion DVDs

This year the Multimedia Unit has produced multiple copies of over 30 Reunion DVDs, 4 Healing Camp DVDs and 4 sundry DVDs (OH&S video collection, Kiosk DVD, Healing Camp presentation at National Forum and Echo Creek Trailer DVD).

Publications

A booklet on Link-Up (Qld) reunions and information was produced for the opening of the ACPA play “Stolen”.

Presentations

This year presentations were made to Bracken Ridge TAFE (3), Caboolture TAFE (2), All Hallows College, JEP Police Trainees (2) and to Kirrawe Aboriginal Organisation on the Gold Coast. The presentations are proving to be very informative and appreciative with requests for repeat lectures, and the significance of the presentations reflected in the evaluations from the participants.

NAIDOC Celebrations

Link-Up (Qld) staff attended a number of NAIDOC celebrations, including The King George Square & Lord Mayor’s Luncheon, Ipswich, Eidsvold, Koobara Kindergarten and Musgrave Park celebrations.

Musgrave Park

It was all hands on deck for the largest of the NAIDOC celebrations at Musgrave Park. It’s an exhausting day, but also one of fulfilment. It is a golden opportunity to catch up with that cousin, Uncle or friend you haven’t seen since last NAIDOC.

Link Up (Qld) staff distributed numerous showbags of information and knick-knacks to the passing throng of people.

Retreats

In November 2011, Link-Up (Qld) staff attended a retreat at the Mount Tamborine Thunderbird Park as a reward for their efforts throughout the year. The staff were pampered with elements similar to Healing Camps, but also discussed productivity on staff planning and reflected on the previous year's undertakings.

Stolen Generations Education Kit Book Launch

Link-Up (Qld) proudly launched their new book “Stolen Generations Education”, written by Dr Norman Sheehan, on Friday 25th May 2012. The launch was held at the Murri School and was hosted by new Link-Up (Qld) CEO Ms Sheryl Sandy.

Link-Up (Qld) expressed appreciation to the Murri School Dance Troupe and Jeff Locke for performing Welcome to Country, and special guest speakers Sam Watson and Helen Simpson for their ongoing support. Link-Up (Qld) also gave their deepest thanks to author Norman Sheehan for all his work and generosity with this project - which had been 2 years in the making.

Kadi Sissoko, on student placement to Link-Up from New York, displays the Stolen Generations Education Kit book

Stolen Generations Education is an educational resource book which includes an in depth timeline of Queensland's Stolen Generations historical events dating from 7 million years BC to 2011.

The book also contains an 80 page annotated bibliography, including Stolen Generations research reports, ethics, history, stories about Social and Emotional Well Being, and film and media resources useful for educators and students alike.

The Cherbourg Women's Support Group

The Cherbourg Dormitory Women's Workshop took place at the Link-Up (QLD) office in Brisbane on March 6th-8th, 2012. The highlight of the workshop was the beginning of a steering committee that will represent the Cherbourg Dormitory Girls.

This workshop was initiated by a group of women who participated in the Link-Up (QLD) Cherbourg Dormitory Reunion yarning circle, held in 2011 who expressed the need for a follow up workshop for the group involved in this circle. The 27 participants focused on building their individual leadership capacity throughout various workshop activities.

Premier's Reconciliation Award

Link-UP (Qld) Aboriginal Corporation and The Aboriginal Centre for the Performing Arts (ACPA) won the prestigious Premier's Reconciliation Award.

Staff and Board members from Link-Up (Qld) and ACPA with Qld Premier, Campbell Newman, and the Reconciliation Award

On 29th May 2012 at GOMA (Gallery of Modern Art), Queensland Premier Hon. Campbell Newman announced the Queensland Reconciliation Award recipients for 2012 with ACPA and Link-UP (Qld) Aboriginal Corporation winning the Premier's Reconciliation Award for "Stolen", as well as being Highly Commended in the Partnerships Award.

"Stolen" was directed by Leah Purcell and was the result of nearly six months collaboration between ACPA and Link-UP (Qld). The project involved research, sharing of stories, and exploration of family histories, intensive production development and rehearsal. It was generously supported by the Queensland Performing Arts Centre and the Department of Health and Ageing.

The National Link Up Forum, Darwin

Eight members of the Link-Up (Qld) travelled to the National Link Up Forum in Darwin. Staff members gave presentations at the forum outlining major projects, such as the Cherbourg Dormitory Reunion and the Palm Island Healing Gathering, as well as other events that took place throughout the year.

Also discussed was the enormously successful Art Initiative project and its outcomes and future applications.
