

Territories Stolen Generations Redress Caseworker

Please note that it is a genuine occupational requirement that this position be filled by an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person in accordance with s25 of the Anti-discrimination Act 1991 (Qld).

Link-Up (Qld) Aboriginal Corporation supports the healing journeys of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples who have been separated from their families and communities through forced removal, adoption, fostering or institutionalisation. We deliver professional, culturally sensitive, and confidential research, reunion, and cultural wellbeing services.

We provide our service in a sensitive, confidential, and culturally appropriate manner and use all available resources to assist those looking to find their family.

The role: The Territories Stolen Generations Redress Caseworker will provide support for the Territories Stolen Generations Redress Scheme by supporting Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples with their application for the Scheme and provide referrals and support throughout the entire application process.

The focus of this role is to assist and provide information, individual support for completing the application to the Territories Stolen Generations Redress Scheme and establish network and referral services appropriate to the clients' need, and work in partnership with the other caseworkers, counsellors, and administrative staff.

Essential Selection Criteria:

- Must have Caseworker experience.
- Demonstrated knowledge of the Territories Stolen Generations Redress Scheme and client eligibility for the Scheme.
- Demonstrated understanding of the history, culture and impacts of the forcible removal of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, and knowledge of the social and emotional wellbeing needs of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.
- Demonstrated written communication skills and an ability to engage effectively with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and other stakeholders.
- The ability to engage effectively with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.
- Demonstrated experience in working with individuals where complex trauma has been experience.
- Ability to implement responsive, client-focused case management.
- Demonstrated organisational and time management skills and the ability to manage competing priorities.
- Work effectively as a member of a team.
- Ability to establish, develop and maintain a network of diverse stakeholders to enhance service delivery and referral pathways for clients.
- Demonstrated competence in the use of technology including internet, desktop applications and database packages.
- Demonstrated organisation and time management skills and the ability to manage competing priorities and work effectively as a member of a team.
- Ability to cultivate productive working relationships and build partnerships to support and promote Link-Up (Qld) programs.
- Demonstrated personal drive and integrity through high level professionalism, resilience and self-awareness.
- Ability to travel for work purposes.
- Willingness to undertake a National Police Check.

- Eligible for Blue Card.
- Evidence of Covid-19 vaccinations in line with current requirements.
- Current Drivers Licence.

Applications close: Monday, 10th October 2022 at 4:00pm. All applicants must address the Essential Selection Criteria, submit a current resume and a role appropriate Cover Letter. If you do not provide these three requirements, your application will not be considered.

Applications accepted via Seek.com or via email to eugenie.johnston@link-upqld.org.au

Late applications will not be accepted. The Position Description is available on the Link-Up (Qld) website. Join Our Team - Link-Up \(Qld\) \(link-upqld.org.au\)